looks like it might be related to that issue. Alternatively, there could be a problem with one of the DirectX-related files installed with your operating system, so I suggest that you download the DirectX Redistributable from Microsoft's Web site and install it. Q: How to get text from TextView after click a button I have a button in my app. When this button is clicked I need to get the text from the TextView that is right after this button.

Here's the code `TextView tv = (TextView)`

findViewById(R.id.button);

btn.setOnClickListener(new
