Exams like the FCE embody the communicative approach, the four skills, . 1. listen as the teacher talks to the whole class ll 11 2 read the texts . 2. read texts correctly, i.e. understand their meaning. The basis of teaching foreign languages is the triad "vocabulary - grammar - reading-speaking-writing". All three components are interconnected and can be studied simultaneously. Do not try to memorize all the words contained in the dictionary, they must be linked into sentences. Grammar. Learn only the words you need to build sentences. Don't try to memorize everything you hear or read. fffad4f19a
